

Mi Casa Es Su Casa

Sept. 4-Dec. 2, 2009

Home is where the heart is. Home sweet home. Mi Casa es Su Casa. These phrases embrace the warmth and tenderness associated with the places and memories that feel like home. Highlighted visual art in this exhibition will explore the different places, ideas and feelings that are associated with home.

Keith Stanton

Artists

Keith Stanton resides in Mesa and has a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Intermedia from Arizona State University. He studied Display and Exhibit Design at the Fashion Institute of Technology in New York City. Stanton uses a macro lens that allows him to present small objects to the same scale as snapshots “of the family picnic” and enjoys emphasizing suburban culture. Stanton’s works have been featured recently at the Phoenix Airport Museum gallery, Art One Gallery in Tempe and the Gilbert Southeast Regional Library.

Barbara Burton

Mesa-based artist Barbara Burton has been printmaking for about 10 years, working with low and nontoxic methods and employing a variety of traditional and non-traditional methods. She works with a variety of printmaking techniques including multi-color reduction block prints, monotypes and numerous intaglio methods. Her prints are inspired by short stories, news stories and pieces of conversations heard in passing. They are an examination of everyday life.
